

With OIP, you get trained insurance professionals dedicated to your business. Our assistant underwriters undergo an extensive training program through our insurance academy, progressing through tasks of increasing complexity. By the time they graduate, they are well-versed in the entire policy lifecycle, from basic to the most intricate tasks.

With three decades of underwriting experience and twelve years of frontline service, OIP stands out as a leading provider of underwriting support and insurtech services in the industry. Our partners benefit from a wide array of underwriting services, handled with utmost accuracy by our tenured staff.
