Staff Augmentation

Business Analysts Team

- Team of E&S experts led by an experienced Project Manager
- Translate business requirements into technology solutions
- Creating tailor-made processes based on each project

Software Developers

- Junior, Medior, and Senior developers
- Front-end, back-end, full stack experts knowing insurance
- Enhanced customer experience as an affordable investment

DevOps

- E&S Professional specialized in software development lifecycle
- Integration between software development teams and business
- IT team delivers business requirements beyond expectations

Software QA Engineers

- Create user stories specific to E&S Insurance
- Develop a custom product that is tailored towards insurance
- Proficient in fixing errors while raising the quality and effectiveness

Technical CSR

- Fluently speaks both insurance and IT languages
- Troubleshoot issues with end-users on a daily basis
- Ask us about the chatbot option

UI/UX Designers

- Knows how insurance-focused software should look and feel
- Experts that drive their decisions around best practice implementation
- Has the right mindset combined with insurance knowledge

Data Analysts and Scientists

- Inspecting the data with a focus on insurance
- Ask the right questions to get the right answers
- Ensure data returns the best benefit for your business

Scrum Master

- Excel at leading a team of developers
- Agile approach to insurance processes
- In-depth knowledge of the product and purpose

Our fast-paced industry has evolved to the point of needing technology just to keep up. Obtaining and analyzing quality data is critical in validating the accuracy of a policy. Standardizing and reporting from the data are essential to producing usable information to identify trends and drive future decisions.

Our customizable technology solutions are built with an E&S foundation by experts in our industry.

BOUND AI

The E&S market's most accurate extraction tool

- 99% accuracy of extracted data via HyperScience technology
- Eliminate manual entry, cutting time in half
- Removing redundant processes to increase sales